Max and the Kindness Challenge

Max had been in a bad mood ever since he lost his favorite toy. When he got to school, his teacher, Mrs. Small, gave the class a challenge to spread kindness. She wanted the students to be kind (nice) to friends, family, and others in the community. She said this would make them feel good and make others feel good too! Mrs. Small asked them to keep a list of all of the kind things they did through the week. Max started thinking of ideas and was busy all week. Some of his acts of kindness included making a card for his bus driver, sharpening pencils for Mrs. Small, helping his neighbor with her homework, donating toys, and reading books to his baby sister. Max noticed when he did kind things, he didn't feel grumpy and he stopped worrying about his lost toy. When he shared his list with Mrs. Small, he had a big smile.

THE WINTER GAMES

It is time for the Winter Games! People from all over the world will come together in one place to watch and play sports. The games last for two weeks and feature a range of competitions.

People who play sports are called athletes. To be a good athlete, you must be determined to do well. Athletes are focused and practice many hours everyday. They train to be the best at their sport. People who watch the sports are spectators. They clap and cheer when the athletes perform well.

During the Winter Games, athletes compete in both inside and outside sports. Some inside sports include ice skating, speed skating, and ice hockey. Some outside sports include skiing, ski jumping, snowboarding, and bobsledding. One thing in common with all of the winter sports is cold weather! All of the sports are played on snow or ice.

While at the winter games, the athletes strive to win medals. They work hard to win as many medals as they can! Each sport has its own set of competitions and there are three medals awarded at the end of the competitions. The medal colors, gold, silver, and bronze, represent 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place. Medals are placed around the athlete's necks during a special ceremony.

The Winter Games is an exciting event that many people enjoy! Will you be watching this year?
